Email: a.hicks@asee.org

Web: www.asee.org

Requirements: As a way of addressing the lack of engineering faculty role models at HBEC's, the Committee instituted the awarding of yearly fellowships to African-American faculty members or students in pursuit of a doctoral degree. These fellowships have been named after the late Helen T. Carr, an official of the Western Electric Fund, who dedicated herself to assuring the continued support of such a fellowship program by sustaining corporate sponsors. The Committee currently provides up to $10,000 per year to students who are pursuing a doctoral degree. Upon completion of the doctoral degree requirements, a fellow is committed to return to one of the HBEC institutions.

Approximately 20 Helen T. Carr Fellows have completed their doctoral degree under this program. Fellowships are available to students who are currently engaged in planning to enter a career in higher education at an HBEC. A candidate must be sponsored by the Dean of Engineering from one of the participating institutions.

Applications from sponsoring Dean should be submitted to ASEE by May 1 each year.

Minority Leaders Fellowship Program
Tel: (202) 238-7900 Fax: (202) 238-7700
Email: info@twc.edu
Web: www.twc.edu

Requirements: Students who are nominated to attend this program by their college or university presidents, are evaluated by a blue ribbon panel composed of academic and professional leaders. Students who wish to be nominated for the program need to obtain a separate MLFP brochure and application. The Program addresses the need to increase opportunities for the growing minority sector of our work force. This competitive program combines a one-week leadership seminar with a 10-week (summer) or 15-week (semester) internship. Fellows receive a full fellowship covering program and housing fees. Preference is given to students with financial need who might not be able to participate in an off-campus leadership program without fellowship support. This program seeks socially conscious students who have actively participated in their communities, with strong writing skills, relevant course work, demonstrated leadership abilities and at least a 3.0 G.P.A.
